Guidelines for Labh Payment

Jai Jinendra! Khub Khub Anumodana on your labh! Congratulations and with deep appreciation, JSMW wishes you and your loved ones the full benefit of this labh. Your labh allows you to practice the principle of Daan (giving), and gain spiritual merit by supporting religious activities within the temple, all while aligning with the Jain values of non-violence and compassion.

Our guidelines for labh payment requests 25% of your labh balance to be paid within two weeks from when your labh is awarded and requests a (customized) payment plan for the remaining balance also identified within two weeks of when the labh is awarded. Labh payments received in a timely manner ensures JSMW receives consistent funding to maintain the upkeep of our temple and support the Jain community. Most importantly, it increases your sense of satisfaction knowing you are contributing to a cause you care about. An annual donation receipt will be provided.
